Each lesson contains a video class and a left bar which includes course topics and quizzes corresponding to each lesson. Also the user will be able to see the instructions to follow before and after watching the video, including links that lead to a help forum. Finally, the student will find attached material to improve their learning during the course.

The screenshot shows a course interface for 'History of Wine in the World'. On the left, a sidebar lists lessons and quizzes. The main content area shows a video player for 'Historia del vino mundial' with a timeline from 6000 a.C. to 700 a.C. and a map of wine origins. Annotations with arrows point to specific elements: 'Lessons' and 'Quiz' point to the sidebar; 'Class' points to the video player; 'Class summary attached' points to a link below the video player.

4.- At the end of the course, there is the section called "Obtain your course certificate" where the user will find the instructions to follow to get it. It is necessary to have obtained a final percentage of at least 70% to download it. At the end of the courses the student will find the certificate button where you can download it.

The screenshot displays the 'Wine pairing' course interface. At the top, there is a title 'Wine pairing' and a subtitle 'Learn how to find the best complement to your food with the ideal wine'. Below this, a list of activities is shown, each with a 'Protected' status and a '10 questions 20 min' or '20 questions 40 min' duration. The activities include: Introduction to pairing, Pairing with tickets, Pairing with pasta and rice, Pairing with red and white meat, and Pairing with desserts. At the bottom of the list, there is a 'Get your certificate' section with a sub-item 'How to obtain my course certificate?'. A red box highlights a 'CERTIFICATE' button located below the 'Get your certificate' section.

Also you will find a satisfaction survey of the course you have taken.
